

WILD NATURE IN THE PYRENEES | ARAGÓN | PYRENEES

DAY 1. ARRIVAL AND CHECK IN. Ecobuilt rural lodging typical in the region.

DAY 2. FLORA AND FAUNA IN HIGH MOUNTAIN. A day to discover the high valleys sculpted by glaciers 65,000 years ago in which is still left an imposing mass of ice in the north face of Monte Perdido. After an approximation in 4x4 we will trek in the kingdom of chamois and of alpine birds. we will see the flora and the adaptations to the rigours of winter.

DAY 3. THE BEARDED VULTURE'S LANDSCAPE. One of the biggest birds in the whole planet flies in the sky of the gorges of Escuin, sharing their habitat with vultures, Egyptian vulture, Golden eagle and other rupicola birds. The trek is about 3 Km.

DAY 4. YOUR OWN WAY. Free day to discover the surroundings. You will get a map of the area. Free entrance to the EcoMuseum in Ainsa (FCQ) .

DAY 5 – CHISTAU, THE SECRET VALLEY. We will see one of the best examples of mosaic landscape: ash trees, poplars and thorny bushes make vegetal fences in between the harvest prairies. An ideal territory for butterfly lovers and one of the last bastions of the Western Capercaillie in the south slopes of the Pyrenees.

A valley where we will find the most ancient rocks in Sobrarbe. Visit a factory of handmade cheese.

DAY 6 – THE ROMANESQUE Guided visit along the Medieval town of Ainsa, one of the most beautiful villages in Spain
